4. Short History:

Raja N.L. Khan Women's College was established in the historical Gope Palace of Midnapore in the year 1957. Gope Palace, during the period of Raja Debendralal Khan, was the nucleus of freedom movements and was graced by stalwarts like Gandhiji, Subhas Chandra Bose, Jawaharlal Nehru, and Smt. Indira Gandhi. The father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi lived in this palace for several days, in the year 1921 & 1925. The college was established with the blessings and initiative of the then Chief Minister of West Bengal—Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy who had shown a keen interest to set up women's college in this district to promote education and enlightenment amongst women. The benevolent determination and goodwill of the then MLA of Midnapore, Late Anjali Khan and her husband Late Amarendralal Khan transformed this dream into a reality. The college was inaugurated by Sri Debendranath Bandyopadhyay, District Magistrate of Midnapore on 22nd August 1957. The college was initially named as Midnapore Women's College and was renamed as Raja Narendra Lal Khan Women's College by Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy on 10th October, 1961. The College started with just 9 students and only one building. Now the college has blossomed into one of the most prestigious institutions of not only the district but in the state as well. The institute has an excellent team of trained professionals who are dedicated to the core, at making students motivated to excel in the various fields. Since its inception, the college has been having the honour to welcome a galaxy of dignitaries into its premises. Former Ministers of Higher Education Prof. Satyasadhan Chakraborty and Prof. Sudarsan Roy Chaoudhuri, Mr. Ashoke Mohan Chakraborty, former Chief Secretary, Govt. of West Bengal, Mr. Satish Chandra Tewari, Principal Secretary, Department of Higher Education, Govt. of West Bengal visited the college on a couple of occasions and offered their valuable counsel and aid towards its development.

Dr. Asis Banerjee, Chairman, Standing Committee of Education Cell of West Bengal Legislative Assembly and his team visited this college and praised the Institution in the “1st Report of Standing Committee on Higher Education 2011-12 of 15th Legislative Assembly”.
